DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY ELECTION.

To Nominate Candidates for City Offices

To be Held on Saturday, February 13, 1869

The democratic electors of the city of Cairo will meet in the several wards on Saturday, February 13, 1869, for the purpose of balloting for candidates for the following offices, viz: a mayor, city clerk, city treasurer, city attorney, city marshal and one police magistrate; one alderman for the first ward; two aldermen for the second ward; one alderman for the third ward, and two aldermen for the fourth ward.

The following will be the regulations of said primary election:

1st. The voting shall be by ballot.

2d. There shall be three judges and two clerks for each ward as follows:

JUDGES—First Ward—James Garland, Jos. McKenzie, and Jos. Bros.

CLERKS—Harmon Able and Robt. Smyth.

JUDGES—Second Ward—Louis Herbert, Andrew Cain and H. Watson Webb.

CLERKS—Thomas Winter and Horace Hannon.

JUDGES—Third Ward—Pat. Fitzgerald, Robert Brubach, and O. P. Lyon.

CLERKS—Bernard McManus and Wm. J. Walton.

JUDGES—Fourth Ward—James Carroll, W. H. Pitcher and Wm. W. Thornton.

CLERKS—John W. Crowley and Wm. A. Winston.

3d. No one shall be permitted to challenge a voter out of his own ward.

4th. Any member of the Democratic party, legally qualified to vote at the charter election, may vote at this election, and when any person offering to vote shall be challenged, before he is permitted to deposit his ballot, shall subscribe to the following declaration, viz:

"I hereby declare as man of honor that I will vote for and not disown any means within my power to secure the election of the nominees of this primary election, and that I am a legal voter of this ward."

5th. The polls shall be opened at 2 o'clock p.m. and close at 8 o'clock p.m., and shall be at the same place as have been designated for the general election on the last Tuesday of February. The judges shall, immediately after the closing of the polls, proceed to canvass the votes and report the result, with the ballots and list of voters, immediately to the democratic city central committee, whose duty it shall be to examine and ratify the same, make publication thereof, and officially declare the nominees in accordance with the result in the Cairo "Evening Bulletin" as soon as practicable.

6th. All candidates for nomination on the ticket for the city at large, are required to publicly pledge themselves to abide the result of the primary election, and to support the nominees thereof.

7th. No one shall be qualified to vote at any primary election who is not a legal voter of the precinct in which he offers to vote.

The judges of the primary election, in the several wards, are urged to observe the greatest care in the conduct of the election, and to rigorously enforce the rules above set forth. By order of the Democratic City Central Committee.

The candidates voted for will be required to take the following pledge.

We, the undersigned candidates for city offices of the city of Cairo, hereby pledge ourselves to abide the result of the primary election.

LEGAL.
